Le Suquet & le the Old port

Cannes is one of the most prestigious city in the World.
Cannes is located in the Sud of France, on the coast of the sea and offers a lot of international festivals and congress.

Our city has a lot of advantages !

The Old Town of Cannes is called Le Suquet.
It's a Provençal word which means « summit » : in fact, the old town is located at the summit of a small hill.

You can start your visit with this place : there are a lot of narrow streets to discover.

The Old Port gives you the opportunity to admire fishermen's boat : the « pointus or spiky ». But also luxury yachts.

The boardwalk at the sea

You can walk all the way on the Boulevard de la Croisette. It's 3 kilometers long of walking with no effort.

The boulevard du Midi is located at Cannes La Bocca.

The Lérins Island

There are 2 islands to visit in the bay of Cannes :

The first island is Sainte-Marguerite.

The Iron Mask is a mysterious man that must wear a mask over his face.

This Man with the Iron Mask was in prison in the Royal Fort.

You can visit his cell.

A lot of Roman remains and from the Middle Age are in the Royal Fort.

The island is a protected and natural forest with hiking paths and a lake : Lake of the Batéguiet.

The second island is called Saint Honorat.

A community of cistercian monks are living in the monastery of this island.

The monks are producing wine of the Abbaye of Lérins and « La Lérine », a liquor.

The markets

You will find in Cannes the market Forville and Gambetta.

It is possible to buy local fruits and vegetables, fresh and with quality.

The fishermen of Cannes are also selling there fish from the day.
